

March 20, 2022

Ontario Regional Council discusses lessons of COVID and what's next, Convention theme is "Together," Unifor's NEB to discuss election plans, Jason Kenney faces a challenger, Whistler bus drivers need wage gap closed, International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination and World Water Day statements, 100% strike vote at Belleville transit, plus how to take screenshots.

WHAT'S HOT

The theme for the 4th Unifor Constitutional Convention in August 2022 in Toronto is "Together."

TAKE ACTION

Demand a fair contract for striking shelter workers in Napanee. Add your name today.

READ MORE

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

On the day before the second anniversary of the COVID-19 pandemic, Unifor Secretary-Treasurer Lana Payne acknowledged what the world and workers lost and the challenges they continue to face. Read our wrap-up of the second day of Ontario Regional Council, including the awarding of the Bud Jimmerfield Award.

READ MORE

Unifor National Executive Board to meet March 21 to discuss investigation into alleged breach of Constitution and next steps. Read Unifor's statement.

READ MORE

The election of Jason Kenney's most outspoken conservative critic may be bad for his stranglehold on the UCP, but the party's policies are still a disaster for working Albertans.

READ MORE

Gavin McGarrigle writes that transit workers in the Sea to Sky region of B.C. have earned a fair contract that closes the wage gap with other western transit workers.

READ MORE

Since January 29, a petition to support Local 114 members on strike has been signed by 2,000+ supporters in the region.

READ MORE

Monday, March 21 is the International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination. Read our statement and add the Facebook frame to your profile to show your support.

READ MORE

GROUNDWATER
WorldWaterDay2022

The theme for the 2022 U.N. World Water Day is "Groundwater: Making the invisible visible."

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

After concessions were tabled during contract negotiations, Unifor Local 1839 members at Belleville Transit have voted 100% in favour of taking strike action if bargaining doesn't produce a tentative agreement by April 1, 2022.

READ MORE

 IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

 RESOURCES

Shelter workers have been on the picket line since October 2021. Watch this video to see the simple improvements they need to come to a fair contract.

WATCH VIDEO

Taking a screenshot of your computer or tablet is simple. Follow these easy steps to get a great photo every time.

READ MORE

Unifor

115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8
Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org