

March 4, 2023

Unifor members and leadership at the Northern Ontario Leadership Meeting (NOLM) joined other unions in Thunder Bay to protest the Ford government cuts and privatization of health care. Check out the video and pictures of the health care rally on Facebook. “Embrace Equity” is the theme of Unifor’s International Women’s Day statement this year. Unifor focuses on empowerment of Black youth during Black History Month. B.C. and Alberta release their budgets.

 WHAT'S HOT

The International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination is observed on March 21. In 2023, our message is: “Our

 TAKE ACTION

Time is running out to get EI fixes in the upcoming federal budget! Join the March 7 Canada-wide Phone Zap to thoughts, our words, our actions.” Order your posters by March 7, 2023, and show solidarity for racial justice.

READ MORE

put the pressure on decision-makers.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

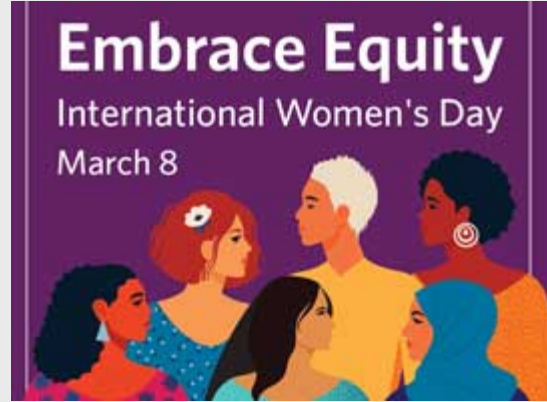

Waving flags and chanting, “public health care,” Unifor members braved the -30C windchill to send a strong message to the Ontario government to stop cutting services and privatizing health care. The spotlight on Ontario and Canada’s health care crisis continued at the Unifor Northern Ontario Leadership Meeting in Thunder Bay.

READ MORE

There was no better way to kick off the Northern Ontario Leadership Meeting in Thunder Bay than organizing a rally against Doug Ford's health care privatization agenda. Watch the video.

WATCH VIDEO

International Women's Day is March 8. Read the statement from National President Lana Payne on the union's commitment to building a more equal world.

READ MORE

Are you planning an event for International Women's Day with your Local or Regional Women's Committee? Find details on our website and send details of your event to women@unifor.org.

READ MORE

The temporary financial windfall from volatile oil prices was squandered in a budget that does little to secure a stable future for Albertans.

READ MORE

The B.C. budget's investments in core social services and health care are necessary and will help shield workers and their families from a forecasted economic slowdown.

READ MORE

Extending the arbitrary deadline for vehicle replacement is a huge victory for Unifor's campaign to protect truckers at the Port of Vancouver.

READ MORE

The federal government's $43-million investment under the Sectoral Workforce Solutions Program will help support trucking companies struggling to hire and train drivers, says Unifor.

See how Unifor members celebrated and acknowledged Black History Month in our Facebook album.

READ MORE

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor members employed at Northwoodcare Inc. in Nova Scotia won a wage increase outside of bargaining to align with the pattern in other health care units.

READ MORE

Read CN Bargaining Committees' response to CN Communiqué.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Unifor, ONA and SEIU marched in the streets of Thunder Bay on Feb. 24, 2023, to St. Joseph's Care Group and held a rally to draw attention to the dire need to take action against the health care crisis across the province and across Canada.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

Check out the Unifor's Spring/Summer 2023 Paid Education Leave schedule at the Unifor Family Education Centre in Port Elgin.

READ MORE

Unifor

115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8

Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org