

unILINK

September 22, 2023

Unifor reaches a tentative agreement with Ford Motor Company, unions around the world are mobilizing for safe rates for road transport workers, telco workers strategize for bargaining in Quebec and Ontario, local news rocked by news of 70 closures of Metroland properties, Unifor members are working hard in Manitoba to change the government, and local unions can take advantage of a new Equity Fund to help enhance equity and anti-racism work.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Unifor has joined more than 50 trade unions representing road transport drivers around the world calling for “Safe Rates”

Stay on top of the latest news in Unifor's automotive sector bargaining.

READ MORE

systems to improve workers' rights and make roads safer.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor has reached a tentative agreement with Ford Motor Company.

READ MORE

For the first time in nearly three decades, Unifor hosted joint strategy meetings of members from Ontario and Quebec Bell Canada Craft, Bell Technical Services and Expertech.

READ MORE

Manitoba voters can turn the tables on the PC government that downgraded hospital emergency rooms by electing a new government on October 3.

READ MORE

Metroland Media is betraying workers and leaving an information vacuum in many communities by ending the print publication of 70 newspapers and shuttering its flyer delivery business.

READ MORE

On the international day of action to support the search of the Brady Road Landfill, Unifor renews its call to honour the wishes of the families for a comprehensive search.

READ MORE

See Unifor members in action during the Manitoba election campaign.

VIEW PHOTOS

The next Parliament can make important and lasting changes for workers by banning scabs and fixing Employment Insurance.

READ MORE

Unifor is launching a new Equity Fund to encourage and support local unions who wish to step up their work on equity issues.

READ MORE

Unifor is calling for higher wages to address affordability challenges and joins the federal government's call to stabilize food prices.

READ MORE

Unifor's 2023 Black, Indigenous and Workers of Colour Conference unified members under the theme "growing together".

A delegation of activists from Unifor and several other labour organizations were on Parliament Hill this week demand federal anti-scab legislation.

READ MORE

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor members at A.G Simpson Automotive ratified a new collective agreement after a two-day strike.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 1106 members at Sunbeam Community & Developmental Services demand the employer return to the table and offer fair and equitable wages.

READ MORE

Unifor held an information picket outside ARCH Hospice to draw attention to the issues workers are facing in this round of contract negotiations.

READ MORE

Healthcare workers of Unifor Local 2458 have concluded their contract negotiations with Chatham Kent Hospital.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Registration is open for Unifor's fall and winter Area Schools.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

Unifor's priorities for the 2024 federal budget are the affordability crisis, health care, and good jobs for all.

READ MORE

Unifor

115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8

Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org