

December 4, 2023

Quebec Council celebrates past achievements and prepares for struggles ahead, Unifor works to set the record straight on jobs at the NextStar plant, members prepare for the International Day of Persons with Disabilities and the National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women, Skilled Trades council holds elections, Pickering Casino security workers join Unifor, and the No Frills tentative agreement is ratified.

Read Lana Payne's op ed about the misinformation circulating about foreign workers and the Stellantis-LG battery plant.

READ MORE

Sign a letter to protect Quebec forest firefighters and put an end to the recruitment and retention crisis.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

The 19th Quebec Council was an opportunity to reflect on a decade of struggles and achievements.

READ MORE

“Transformative solutions for inclusive development: the role of innovation in fueling an accessible and equitable world,” is the theme for the 2023 International Day of Persons with Disabilities.

READ MORE

Unifor members from across Saskatchewan met this week to discuss local bargaining issues and mobilizing for the next provincial election.

VIEW PHOTOS

December 6 is the annual day of remembrance of the 1989 École Polytechnique massacre and all lives lost to gender-based violence.

READ MORE

Skilled Trades members poised for the future as Skilled Trades Council delegates vote to elect Executive and Committee people to serve for the next three years.

READ MORE

Unifor will welcome more than 40 new members from the security department at the Pickering Casino Resort after they voted 97% in favour of joining.

READ MORE

The fourth consecutive curtailment at the Paper Excellence paper mill in Crofton will keep more than 100 workers laid off.

READ MORE

More than seventy academics have signed a letter in support of a federal ban on scabs.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Workers at No Frills have voted overwhelmingly in favor of their tentative agreement.

READ MORE

Members of Local 4005 at the Discovery Centre in Halifax ratified a new collective agreement with wage increases and a new evening shift premium.

READ MORE

Unifor

115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8

Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org