

unilink

June 9, 2024

Membership Appreciation Day at Canada's Wonderland, updating the Canada-USA-Mexico trade agreement, massive healthcare rally calls on Ford to stop privatization, Air Canada members defend scope work, members at Best Theatronics bring safety concerns to Canadian Safety Nuclear Commission, CRTC offers new support for local news, Pharmacare passes key hurdle, and Unifor members at Gibraltar copper mine begin job action.

WHAT'S HOT

TAKE ACTION

Tickets for Unifor's membership appreciation day at Canada's Unifor members and supporters rallied to protect their scope work after Air Canada contracted out passenger shuttle service.

READ MORE

Wonderland are now available for purchase.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor members rally against Ontario health care privatization, calling for a stronger public health system.

READ MORE

National President Lana Payne
presented Unifor's priorities for the 2026 review of the CUSMA during her testimony to the International Trade Committee.

WATCH VIDEO

Unifor members at Local 3018 were forced to take strike action at the Gibraltar copper mine after the company refused to negotiate basic terms of a new collective agreement.

READ MORE

Mental health was front and centre at the Unifor Education Technical Office and Professional Council held last week.

READ MORE

Find a Pride event near you and join Unifor members in support of queer and trans workers.

READ MORE

Unifor and PSAC sent a joint letter to the Canadian Safety Nuclear Commission expressing concerns about Best

Unifor Local 1291 marked its fiftieth anniversary by welcoming National Theratronics using scabs to handle safety-sensitive equipment.

READ MORE

President Lana Payne for a tour of the Ariva paper and packaging facility.

VIEW PHOTOS

Unifor celebrates the passing of the federal pharmacare bill's third reading, moving Canada closer to universal pharmacare.

READ MORE

Unifor applauds the CRTC's announcement of new supports for local Canadian news.

READ MORE

Labour activists Ken Luckhardt and Brenda Wall were honoured with the prestigious Order of the Companions of Unifor regional leadership was in Kamloops, B.C. to help advance the provincial forestry campaign.

READ MORE

O.R. Tambo for their anti-apartheid activism.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor Local 4266 at First Student ratified its first agreement in Prescott, Ont.

READ MORE

Unifor

115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8

Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org