

July 5, 2024

FFAW-Unifor demands reinstatement of northern cod moratorium. Unifor joins the Ontario government in call for federal government transit funding to secure good jobs at Alstom Thunder Bay plant. GTA members show their Pride at the Toronto parade. Bell Canada delivers another blow to local news. Ontario publishers to get mandatory minimum amount of provincial government ad dollars, and Nova Scotia health unions seek conciliation.

WHAT'S HOT

TAKE ACTION

FFAW-Unifor fish harvesters are calling for an immediate return to a Stewardship

Unifor members, leaders, and staff proudly marched in the Toronto Pride parade this past weekend.

VIEW PHOTOS

Fishery, and are asking for the support of all Canadians. Sign the petition.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

FFAW-Unifor is calling on the federal government to reverse its decision to reopen the northern cod commercial fishery and return the stewardship fishery.

READ MORE

Unifor expresses outrage as Bell Media announces more media sector layoffs.

READ MORE

National President Lana Payne and Premier Doug Ford call on the federal government to help fund new TTC trains to be made by Unifor members in Thunder Bay.

READ MORE

The Ontario government's new policy to direct key public agencies to allocate 25% of their ads to Ontario publishers is good for local news.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Council of Unions take first step towards Nova Scotia health care strike as Unifor, CUPE and NSGEU file for conciliation to conclude essential services.

READ MORE

Strike continues at Bombardier's Pearson and Waterloo airport facilities after members reject tentative agreement.

READ MORE