

July 23, 2025

Major organizing victory at the Amazon facility in Delta, B.C.; Unifor National President Lana Payne warns against normalizing tariffs as Trump's threats escalate; CN Tower workers achieve significant gains in a new collective agreement; strikes at Toromont and Cascade Aerospace continue; striking Best Western members share powerful video messages; Atlantic Bell locals gear up for bargaining; and Unifor members unite from coast to coast at the Stampede BBQ, Canada's Wonderland, and the Atlantic BIWOC Family BBQ.

WHAT'S HOT

Members and their families gathered for a Stampede-style Member Appreciation

TAKE ACTION

Unifor Member Appreciation Day at Atlantic Splash Adventures is coming

BBQ, where they enjoyed tasty food, lively conversation, and a fun-filled day of celebration.

WATCH VIDEO

up on Saturday, July 26. Tickets are selling fast—get yours today!

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Amazon workers in Delta B.C. win the right to be represented by Unifor.

READ MORE

Unifor condemns Trump's threat to impose a 35% tariff on Canadian goods as economic extortion to strong-arm Canada into an unfair trade deal.

READ MORE

CN Tower hospitality workers have voted to ratify a tentative agreement, bringing a nearly two-week labour dispute to an end.

READ MORE

Unifor Atlantic Communication locals meet to outline priorities and discuss challenges ahead of fall bargaining with Bell.

READ MORE

Diane has worked 40 years in the laundry at Windsor's Best Western hotel —doing finger-numbing work for just $18/hr. Now she's on strike with her work family to demand a living wage.

WATCH VIDEO

"We work hard at our jobs for you to keep your hotel going and it wouldn't kill you to pay us enough to survive," says

Unifor members at Toromont Industries in Bradford, Ont. take strike action after the employer refused to address wages

Joy, a 15-year employee at the Best Western Plus Waterfront to billionaire owner Shmuel Farhi.

WATCH VIDEO

Unifor Western Regional Director Gavin McGarrigle joined the picket line to stand in solidarity with striking Local 114 members at Cascade Aerospace. These highly skilled workers are demanding a fair deal for the vital maintenance and repair work they do.

VIEW PHOTOS

and benefits in their first collective agreement.

READ MORE

Thousands of Unifor members and their families turned out for a day of rides, family time, and solidarity at Canada's Wonderland for Member Appreciation Day.

READ MORE

The Atlantic Black, Indigenous and Workers of Colour Committee BBQ brought Unifor members and their families together for fun, food, and union-building.

READ MORE

Unifor

115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8

Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org