

August 23, 2021

Unifor puts workers' rights first in federal election, retirees rally with De Havilland workers, statement on Afghanistan, federal pay equity, new Nova Scotia premier must deliver, Unifor joins with other unions to demand LTC staffing fixes, stand with Ontario truckers, AWOC barbeque in Halifax, help push for better child care.

 WHAT'S HOT

Unifor's Atlantic AWOC barbecue for Racial Justice was a huge success Saturday at Seaview Africville Park in Halifax. Check out the Facebook Album.

 TAKE ACTION

Join Unifor's new campaign for more rest stops for Ontario's long-haul truckers to help keep highways safe by emailing of Provincial Parliament.

READ MORE

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor is urging federal parties to put workers, and the need to “BuildBackBetter” for working people at the heart of all platforms in this federal election. Read more about the union's seven priorities:

READ MORE

Unifor retirees drove to Toronto from as far as Windsor and Sudbury on Monday

As news reports continue to paint a dire and desperate situation in Afghanistan, to join the picket line for striking workers at De Havilland and show their support.

READ MORE

Unifor is gearing up for the new federal pay equity law that comes into effect August 31, 2021. Watch what is at stake on the issue.

READ MORE

Unifor expresses solidarity with the people and workers.

READ MORE

Newly elected Progressive Conservative Premier Tim Houston must deliver on promises to fix health care and better the lives of Nova Scotia workers and make science-based decisions to safely re-open the Northern Pulp mill in his home riding says Unifor.

READ MORE

Unifor along with Union leaders from SEIU Healthcare and the Canadian Union of Public Employees (CUPE) Ontario, demand an urgent and comprehensive strategy from the Ford government to address the worsening health human resource crisis in Ontario that is leaving seniors and patients without the staffing levels they need.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor's Bell Craft and Services members ratify deal that protects jobs and improves wages.

READ MORE

Canadian Salt's refusal to negotiate a fair collective agreement with Unifor Local 823 could force a strike at a major road salt supplier in the Maritimes.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Saskatchewan has signed up to join the federal child care program – leaving just Ontario, Alberta and New Brunswick as the only provinces that have not. Share our digital ad on your social channels.

RESOURCES

Elections are about the future – and that means engaging young workers in your bargaining units. Unifor's Young Workers Mind Map Poster can help. Download yours today.

WATCH VIDEO

DOWNLOAD

Unifor

115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8

Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org