

August 28, 2021

Unifor calls on Doug Ford and Justin Trudeau to show their support for De Havilland workers, a single mother has a message for Canada's richest woman, stay informed and get involved with the federal election, Unifor helps Afghan journalists, Mexican GM workers vote for a real union, sign up for a racial justice forum, Unifor donation to fight wildfires, Mama Bear volunteers bring food donations, volunteer for Labour Day in your community, a tribute to Jack Layton.

 WHAT'S HOT

Single mother tells Canada's richest woman, Sherry Brydson, to negotiate with striking workers at De Havilland and

 TAKE ACTION

Sign up now to attend one of seven racial justice forums Unifor is hosting to bring together Union leadership, reminds the billionaire Longview Aviation owner that every Dash 8 aircraft was built with the “blood, sweat and tears” of 700 highly-skilled Unifor members.

activists, employers and community organizations to foster new ideas, partnerships and connections – in our locals, workplaces and communities.

WATCH VIDEO

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Jerry Dias is calling on the prime minister and the Ontario premier to state publicly that there will be no government money for De Havilland if Unifor members are not building the Dash-8 airplane.

READ MORE

A vote by workers at a General Motors plant in Mexico, rejecting an imposed and undemocratic union contract, is a great step forward for them and for workers across North America.

READ MORE

In this election, Unifor members can vote in this election to help Canada #BuildBackBetter. Make your Plan to Vote, volunteer, and demand that candidates support workers' issues.

READ MORE

Unifor is donating a total of $17,000 to three organizations to help get Afghan journalists out of the country following the Taliban's takeover of Afghanistan.

READ MORE

Labour Day 2021
Connect with Communities to #BuildBackBetter

For Labour Day 2021, let's continue to grow our union's community engagement, together. Unifor encourages all members to volunteer on Labour Day.

READ MORE

Unifor discussed the crisis in long-term care in a meeting with Ontario Long-term Care Minister Rod Phillips.

READ MORE

The Unifor B.C. Regional Council has spearheaded a donation to the Canadian Red Cross' B.C. wildfire relief effort.

READ MORE

Unifor members from eight locals from across Winnipeg volunteered with the Mama Bears group to walk and bring food donations.

READ MORE

 IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

 RESOURCES

This past Sunday marked the 10th anniversary of Jack Layton's passing. The Layton Legacy committee held a free virtual concert to mark the occasion. Unifor National President Jerry Dias made an appearance in the YouTube broadcast, paying tribute to Layton.

WATCH VIDEO

In order to build back better, Canada must create an income security system that protects workers and improves affordability. Read our federal election issue sheet on income security and affordability.

READ MORE

Unifor

115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8
Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org